

31 What is the main function of a companion cell in phloem tissue?

- A providing cytoplasmic contact with the sieve tube element for loading
- B providing structural support for the sieve tube element
- C providing the nucleus for cell division in the phloem
- D providing the source of assimilates for storage