

1(a)	A = palisade mesophyll ; B = epidermis ; C = spongy mesophyll ;	3
1(b)	accept ora throughout any three from: Erica v Cedrus: curled / rolled, leaf (v not, curled / rolled) ; hairs / trichomes (v no trichomes) ; no hypodermis / AW v hypodermis / layer of cells below epidermis / layer of cells between epidermis and palisade mesophyll ; A ref. to two layers of outer cells in Cedrus AVP ; ; e.g. Erica has thicker cuticle Erica has larger epidermal cells sunken stoma visible in Cedrus Cedrus has cylindrical / needle-shaped, leaf A circular in (cross-) section Cedrus has lower surface area to volume ratio ;	3
1(c)	any three from: idea that stomata, only open during the day / open during the day and close at night ; statements about gas exchange: stomata open to obtain (enough) carbon dioxide for photosynthesis ; A carbon dioxide not required at night statement about transpiration: (most) water vapour lost via open stomata ; very little water (vapour) lost via cuticle ; I ref. to temperature	3