

- 3 Inside a cell, a damaged mitochondrion can be surrounded and enclosed by a membrane to form a vesicle.

What happens after the fusion of a lysosome with the vesicle?

- A ATP production by the mitochondrion increases.
- B Enzymes from the lysosome repair the mitochondrion.
- C Hydrolytic enzymes catalyse the breakdown of the mitochondrion.
- D The mitochondrion is released from the cell by exocytosis.