

Question	Marking Guidance	Mark	Comments
03.1		1	Accept a box drawn around any OH and H from another OH OR Accept one box around two OHs
03.2	1. Filter and dry (the precipitate); 2. Find mass/weight;	2	1. Accept: correct reference to evaporation after filtration
03.3	1. A = glucose and B = maltose; 2. Because more sugar/precipitate after hydrolysis/maltase action;	2	2. Accept 'higher concentration of sugar' for 'more sugar' 2. Accept 'break down' for hydrolysis
03.4	1. Quantitative OR (Colour change is) subjective; 2. Standardises (the) method;	1 max	1. Accept: accurate/precise
03.5	16.67 – 17 = 2 marks;; (cumulative percentage error of both measuring vessels) If incorrect final answer, accept for 1 mark: 0.167 – 0.17 (not a percentage) OR evidence of $\frac{1}{15} + \frac{0.5}{5}$ (correct understanding, but not calculated)	2	$\frac{1}{15} + \frac{0.5}{5} \times 100$ Ignore: ± (plus or minus) in answer
TOTAL		8	