

2(a)	haploid is one (complete) set of chromosomes ; diploid is two (complete) sets of chromosomes ; if only comparative statement = max 1 e.g. haploid is n chromosomes and diploid is 2n haploid is half the number of chromosomes as diploid / AW	2
2(b)	prophase I chromosomes / chromatin, condense / shorten / fatten I DNA or homologous chromosomes pair up / bivalents form or crossing over / synapsis / chiasmata formation ; metaphase I homologous (pairs of) chromosomes / bivalents, line up on the, equator / metaphase plate or random / independent, assortment, of homologous (pairs of) chromosomes / bivalents ; anaphase I chromosome(s) / one of each pair of chromosomes, moves (to pole / end of cell) ; telophase I chromosomes reach the opposite, poles / centrosomes / centrioles / end of cell or chromosomes decondense / chromatin formation / chromosomes become diffuse ;	4
2(c)	cytokinesis ;	1