

- 9 What is the advantage of covalent bonds when joining smaller molecules together to form polymers?
- A They are strong and stable.
 - B They are involved in the cohesion of dipolar molecules.
 - C They generate two oppositely charged ions.
 - D They are broken easily in hydrolysis reactions.