

1 Which statements about resolution and magnification are correct?

	resolution	magnification
A	the ability to distinguish between two separate objects that are very close together	the number of times larger an image is compared with the real size of the object
B	the clarity of the image formed by the microscope	the power of the microscope to focus on very small objects
C	the number of times larger an image is compared with the real size of the object	the ability to distinguish between two separate objects that are very close together
D	the power of the microscope to focus on very small objects	the clarity of the image formed by the microscope