

40 Measles is an infectious disease caused by a virus.

The graph shows the number of cases of measles each year in a country before and after a vaccine was introduced.

What could have caused the decrease in the number of cases of measles after vaccination was introduced?

	vaccines provided artificial active immunity in people	vaccines provided artificial passive immunity in people	fewer people are able to act as hosts for the virus
A	✓	x	✓
B	x	✓	✓
C	x	✓	x
D	✓	x	x

key ✓ = yes
x = no