

28 A plant leaf seen in transverse section with a microscope shows the features listed.

- a thick waxy cuticle on upper surface
- sunken stomata on lower surface
- rolled leaf so the edges curl

What is this leaf adapted for?

- A to decrease carbon dioxide uptake
- B to increase carbon dioxide uptake
- C to decrease water loss by transpiration
- D to increase water loss by transpiration