

30 Which does not occur when a red blood cell arrives at the alveolus?

- A Carbaminohaemoglobin releases carbon dioxide from the α -globin and β -globin polypeptide chains.
- B Carbonic acid in the red blood cell forms carbon dioxide and water.
- C Hydrogencarbonate ions diffuse from the plasma into the red blood cell.
- D Hydrogen ions are released from haemoglobinic acid and diffuse out of the red blood cell.