

33 Which statements about a mammalian heart are correct?

- 1 The right atrium and right ventricle contain deoxygenated blood going to the lungs.
- 2 The left atrium and left ventricle contain oxygenated blood going to the pulmonary circulation.
- 3 The left ventricle has a thicker wall than the right ventricle and delivers blood at higher pressure.
- 4 The pressure of blood in the aorta is less than that in the pulmonary artery.

A 1, 3 and 4      B 1 and 3 only      C 2, 3 and 4      D 2 and 4 only