

- 5 (a) The sarcomere is composed of many structures and is the functional unit in the contraction of striated muscle.

Table 5.1

[5]

Explain the effect of a low blood calcium ion concentration on the functioning of the sarcomeres of striated muscle fibres.

[Total: 9]