

11 Which description of globular proteins is correct?

- A They are only found in cell surface membranes.
- B They only contain amino acids with hydrophilic R groups.
- C They can change shape by using energy from ATP.
- D They always have a quaternary structure of at least three polypeptides.