

36 Emphysema is a type of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD). A person with emphysema has difficulties in breathing out.

Why does emphysema cause difficulties in breathing out?

- A Smooth muscle fibres in the airways are destroyed.
- B Too little mucus is produced in the bronchi.
- C The elasticity of the alveoli decreases.
- D The surface area of the alveoli becomes larger.