

- 35 What correctly describes the effect of carcinogens on lung tissue that causes a tumour to develop?
- A Cells in damaged alveoli walls divide more rapidly to replace damaged areas.
 - B Cilia are paralysed and mucus accumulates in the lungs causing DNA to change.
 - C DNA changes, causing bronchial epithelial cells to divide by mitosis in an uncontrolled way.
 - D Haemoglobin carries less oxygen, causing bronchial cells to divide by mitosis in an uncontrolled way.