

- 19 Some chemicals, used to stop tumour growth, work by preventing the DNA double helix from uncoiling and separating.

During which stage of the cell cycle would they act?

- A anaphase
- B interphase
- C metaphase
- D prophase