

13 Which feature of cellulose molecules contributes to the function of plant cell walls?

- A Adjacent cellulose molecules are linked by glycosidic bonds.
- B Branched chains of β -glucose molecules are linked by hydrogen bonds.
- C Molecules of α -glucose are linked by 1-6 glycosidic bonds.
- D Unbranched chains of β -glucose are linked by hydrogen bonds.