

40 Which statement about B-lymphocytes and T-lymphocytes is correct?

- A They become active only when a specific antibody binds to their surface receptor.
- B They divide to form clones when meeting an antitoxin in a cell.
- C They produce memory cells to respond to an antigen when exposed in the future.
- D They release hormone-like cytokines which stimulate release of antibodies.