

11 The statements describe the structure of a polysaccharide found in the cell walls of certain plants.

- 1 The polysaccharide is composed of two different monosaccharides.
- 2 The monosaccharides are joined by 1,4 glycosidic bonds.
- 3 The polysaccharide contains pentose sugars.

Which statements are also true for cellulose?

- A 1 and 2 B 1 and 3 C 2 and 3 D 2 only