

- 26 What is a correct statement about the movement of substances absorbed by roots?
- A Ions have to pass through cell walls to cross the endodermis.
 - B Ions move through the symplastic pathway only until they reach the Casparian strip.
 - C Soil water has a more negative water potential than the xylem sap.
 - D Water passes through the symplastic pathway along a water potential gradient.