

7 A sample of a solution was tested for reducing sugar and the result was negative.

Another sample of the same solution was then tested for non-reducing sugar and the result was positive.

Which step in the test for non-reducing sugar breaks the glycosidic bonds?

- A addition of Benedict's reagent
- B addition of sodium hydroxide
- C boiling with hydrochloric acid
- D heating to 80 °C