

- 18 One of the chromosomes in a nucleus has a telomere which contains many repeats of the base sequence TTAGGG.

This chromosome was extracted from four different cells and the total number of bases in the telomere was determined.

Which total number of bases was found in the cell that had undergone the most mitotic divisions?

- A 5548 B 5580 C 5645 D 5700