

6 A student carries out a semi-quantitative test with Benedict's solution.

Which statement about this procedure is correct?

- A It detects only the presence or absence of glucose.
- B It provides an indication of relative reducing sugar concentrations.
- C The precipitate needs to be filtered, dried and weighed to give the reducing sugar concentration.
- D A colorimeter needs to be used to determine the glucose concentration.