

6 A sample of milk was tested with Benedict's solution and a yellow colour was observed.

Which conclusion is correct?

- A No non-reducing sugars are present.
- B Reducing sugars are present.
- C There is a high concentration of glucose.
- D There is a high concentration of sucrose.