

- 9 Threonylvaline is a dipeptide formed from the two amino acids, threonine and valine. A peptide bond forms between the carboxyl group of threonine and the amine group of valine.

The side-chains (R groups) of the two amino acids are shown.

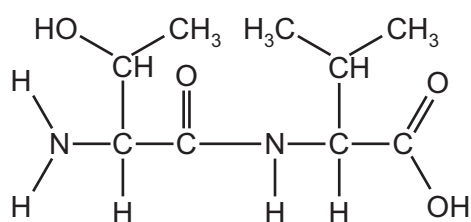

threonine

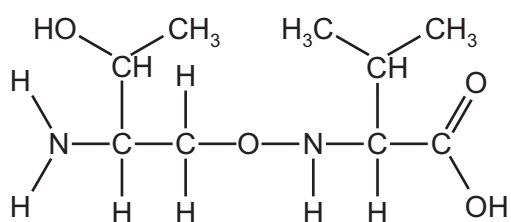

valine

Which molecular structure is threonylvaline?

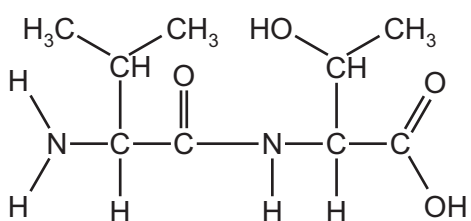

A

B

C

D

