

4 Lignin and suberin are polymers that are present in plant tissues.

(a) Describe and explain the roles of lignin and suberin in the transport of water through the roots and stem of a plant.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

..... [4]

(b) The enzyme laccase catalyses the formation of lignin in plants.

Fig. 4.1 is a diagram of the mode of action of laccase.

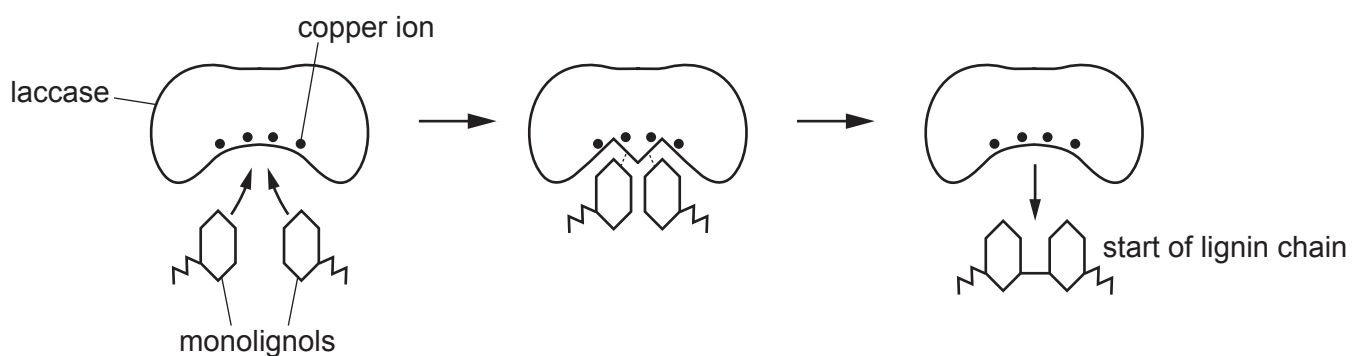

Fig. 4.1

Describe and explain the mode of action of laccase when catalysing the formation of lignin.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

..... [5]

[Total: 9]